Stables and Disposal of Manure. (Ord. Mar. 23, 1915.)

ART. 2. SEC. 14. Stables and manure pits.—Every owner, lessee, or user of any stable or place where horses or cattle are kept, or of any place in which manure or any liquid discharge of such animals shall collect, shall at all times keep, or cause to be kept, such stables or places and the drainage and appurtenances thereof in a cleanly condition, so that no offensive odors shall arise. Every owner, lessee, or user of any building or premises wherein or whereon any horse or cow or any other beast of draft or burden, or any cattle may be kept, within the city, shall provide, in connection with such building or premises, a suitable receptacle for dung, manure, filth, or other offensive matter, which may from time to time be produced in the keeping of any such animal in such building or upon such premises. Such receptacle shall be provided with a screen cover of suitable material as to exclude flies and shall be emptied at least once every week.

Nuisances. (Ord. Mar. 23, 1915.)

ART. 2. SEC. 15. Premises offensive.—Any store, house, factory, building, or other structure of any kind, or any ground or premises kept, permitted, or suffered to remain in such condition so as to be offensive to the inhabitants thereof, or any person, or dangerous or prejudicial to the public health, is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and any owner, occupant, or agent of such premises who shall neglect or refuse to abate such nuisances, after notice to do so by any members of the health department or any policeman, shall be subject to the penalties of this article.

SEC. 17. Nuisances.—No person shall throw, place, leave, cause, or permit to be thrown, placed, or left, any filth or rubbish in or upon any street, avenue, alley, or sidewalk of the city, in front of or adjoining any building or premises owned or occupied by him or subject to his control under the penalties of this article. No building, vehicle, structure, receptacle, or anything used or to be used for any purpose whatever, shall be made, used, kept, maintained, or operated in the city of Springfield if the using, keeping, maintaining, or operating of such vehicle, structure, receptacle, or thing shall be offensive, dangerous, or detrimental to the health of the community. In all cases where a nuisance shall be found in any building or upon any ground or premises within the jurisdiction of the city, a notice shall be served upon the owner, tenant, or lessee of such building or premises to remove such nuisance, and in case of his neglect or refusal to do so in accordance with such notice, he shall be charged with the expense which may be incurred in the removal thereof by the city, to be collected by suit, or otherwise, in addition to a fine or penalty of such violation. Any factory, yard, building, or structure of any kind, or tallow shop, soap factory, tannery, distillery, livery stable, cattle shed or yard, packing house, slaughterhouse, or rendering establishment, or carpet cleaning establishment, which shall become nauseous, foul, or offensive, is hereby declared a nuisance, and the person or persons owning, keeping, or maintaining, or in possession, charge, or control of any such place aforesaid, shall be subject to the penalties of this article. The keeping of any swine in any inclosure or pen within 300 feet of any dwelling house, public building, or factory within the city is hereby declared to be a nuisance. In all cases where no provision is herein made defining what are nuisances and how the same may be removed, abated, or prevented, in addition to what may be declared such herein, those offenses known to the common law or of the statutes of Illinois, as nuisances, may, in case the same exists within the city limits or within one-half mile thereof, be treated as such and proceeded against as in this article provided.

SEC. 18. Penalty.—Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of this article shall be subject to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each and every offense.
